

AGREEMENT
for Academic Cooperation between the ARISTOTLE UNIVERSITY OF THESSALONIKI and the
CARDIFF University, Wales, U.K.

The contracting parties: 1) The Aristotle University of Thessaloniki, represented by its Rector, Professor MICHAEL A. PAPADOPOULOS, and 2) Cardiff University represented by its Vice Chancellor, Dr DAVID GRANT, agreed on the following:

ARTICLE I

The Aristotle University of Thessaloniki and Cardiff University are establishing academic relations and collaboration in teaching and research in different academic fields of mutual interest. The details will be specified in a working programme, which will be prepared prior to the year it refers to.

ARTICLE II

1. Lectures and seminars

Each of the contracting parties is engaged for mutual exchange of two (2), member(s) of their academic staff, per year. Each academic staff member of both Universities will stay at the host University seven (7) days the outmost, to give lectures or seminars on subjects within the programme of studies of the School of Medicine, which function at both Universities.

These lectures and seminars will be given either in the language of the host country, or in one of the following languages: English, French or German. In the second case, it would be more convenient, if a translation of the text in the language of the host country were available, either to be distributed previously, or to be used for simultaneous oral translation.

2. Common Research Programmes

Members of the academic staff, serving at the above mentioned schools of both Universities, can collaborate in Common Research Programmes. The results will be jointly published to the mutual benefit of both Institutes.

3. Publications etc.

Exchange of publications and scientific annuals between the two Universities is desirable.

4. Working Programme

For the realization of the activities mentioned above, a Working Programme covering a whole academic year is to be drawn up.

The Working programme will include the names of the teaching staff members and the research associates, who will visit the two Universities respectively, the academic fields in which the lectures of the above scholars will refer to and the time and terms of stay in the host country on a basis of absolute mutuality and equality concerning their number, as well as the department and laboratories where the Common Research Programmes will be carried out.

ARTICLE III

Each of the contracting parties will provide free accommodation for the visiting scholars. As far as the Common Research Programmes are concerned, the host University, namely, the University where the scheduled research programme is being conducted, undertakes the required expenses for eventual visits outside the seat of the relevant University, for the academic staff, provided that an additional sum covering these expenses will be requested by the Departments, in time and before the signing of the Working Programme.

ARTICLE IV

This contract is in force immediately after the authorized representatives of both Universities have signed it. Its validity is for three years but it can be extended on the grounds of a joint decision taken by both Universities.

The contracting parties declare that have read the present document and have agreed on all terms and conditions herein the agreement, issued in two (2) copies in English, is signed by both contracting parties.

For the Aristotle University of Thessaloniki
The Rector

For the Cardiff University
The Vice-Chancellor

Prof. MICHAEL A. PAPADOPOULOS

Thessaloniki, 14.6.2002

Dr. DAVID GRANT

Cardiff,