THESSALONIKI

General Collaboration Agreement

This is a general collaboration agreement between the Lviv National Academy of Arts represented by its present Rector Professor Andriy Bokotey, on one hand and Aristotle University of Thessaloniki represented by its present Rector Professor Yannis Mylopoulos on the other hand.

The aim of cooperation is the realization of mutually initiated programs that are useful for the educational process adaptation and needs as well as can effectively influent upon the development and support of mutual contacts.

Considering financial conditions of each party the agreement is realized in the frame of the following items and programs:

- reciprocity of students and teachers
- common scientific and research works
- participation in seminars and academic meetings
- exhibition activity
- short-term research programs
- artistic plein-airs

Financial conditions for each program are mutually discussed and approved by the both parties before its realization.

Both institutions are ready to consider additional proposals for mutual cooperation. In discussion between the parties alterations and additions may be made to the present agreement.

This agreement comes into force upon the signing of it by both parties and it will remain during 5 years or effect until cancelled in writing by or both of the institutions with appropriate advance notice.

Upon expiry of the agreement it can be prolonged by mutual decision of both parties.
