MEMORANDUM OF UNDERSTANDING

This Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) is entered into by and between:

- The Faculty of Law of the Aristotle University of Thessaloniki, hereinafter referred to as the First Party, duly represented by Professor Panayotis Glavinis, Dean of the said Faculty, and

- The University of Belgrade - Faculty of Law, hereinafter referred to as the Second Party, duly represented by Professor Bojan Milisavljević, Dean of the said Faculty.

The Parties hereby agree to cooperate in order to promote the rapprochement of the Republic of Serbia with the European Union through a series of educational, research, scientific, consultancy, mobility and raising awareness actions, which could be decided and undertaken jointly by the Parties in order to strengthen their academic relations and to enhance the integration process of the acquis communautaire into the legal order of the Republic of Serbia.

The First Party's Centre for European Legal Culture will serve as the main instrument for implementing this cooperation on behalf of the First Party.

In addition, the First Party will award on a yearly basis one (1) scholarship in the form of a tuition fee waiver to a law graduate from the Second Party for the English-language LLM in European Business and Economic Law offered by the First Party. The scholarship recipient will be required to return to the Republic of Serbia in order to contribute to the country's process of rapprochement with the European Union, thereby applying the acquired knowledge.

Nothing contained in this MoU shall be construed as imposing any binding obligation for either Party.

This MoU shall enter into force once approved by the competent governing bodies of each Party, if necessary. It shall remain in force for a period of five (5) years from the date of its signature.

This MoU has been executed in two original copies in Belgrade on this 27th day of March 2025.

For and on behalf of the First Party
