proceed from the common interest in the development of research and teaching.

Article 1

Both signatories determine and regulate with this agreement the areas and matters of mutual cooperation as well as the forms and manners of its implementation.

Article 2

Signatories shall co-operate in the following areas:

- Of organizing and carrying out undergraduate and graduate education and the exchange of experience and information on study programs, methods and didactic procedures in the specially agreed upon study and scientific fields;
- Of faculty and student exchanges;
- Of organizing and carrying out joint research projects and mutual exchange of information on research results;
- Of teaching and research faculty development;
- Of the mutual exchange of information on academic activities and planned university development;
- Of the exchange of all publications published by universities and important for the development of scientific and educational activities;
- Of mutual library cooperation and exchange of books, periodicals and other information material;
- Of cooperation of students and student organizations in the field of academic, cultural and sport activities;

- Of information exchange and coordination of admission requirements for undergraduate and graduate studies;
- Of publishing;
- Of organizing and participating in scientific and professional meetings, conferences, symposia and other forms of education;
- Other areas in which mutual interest in cooperation is established.

Article 3

Both signatories as per accord agree that the cooperation shall be carried out on the basis of a yearly program of cooperation.

Both universities shall agree upon the forms and manners of cooperation.

Article 4

The inter-university cooperation based on this agreement shall be carried out on the principle of reciprocity.

Article 5

All the details and the realization of the individual activities defined by this agreement shall be discussed and adjusted by both signatories.

Article 6

Both signatories shall consent to mutually inform each other about all circumstances important for the realization of this agreement.

Article 7

All possible amendments and additions to this agreement as well as other questions related to the subject of this agreement shall be concluded in writing and annexed to this agreement.

Article 8

This agreement shall be concluded for an indefinite period of time. Each university may cancel the agreement in writing; the cancellation period shall be six months. This agreement shall cease to apply at the end of the cancellation period, provided that the annual program of cooperation has been carried out.

Article 9

The agreement shall go into effect when signed by the legal representatives of both universities. It is signed in four copies, where all have a nature of the original and where each signatory receives two copies.
